

Alaska Youth for Environmental Action Civics & Conservation Summit Youth Delegate Responsibilities

Attend the full Civics & Conservation Summit

- Delegates are expected to attend the summit in full
- Participate in all workshops and activities to the best of their ability to gain skills and knowledge to take action on climate and learn civic opportunities.
- Complete all registration paperwork with your guardian
- Try one fundraising tactic for registration costs & spending money in Juneau

Support other Youth Delegates

- Communicate regularly with the other youth delegates by sharing ideas, asking each other for support and guidance throughout the summit
- Communicate via email, social media, slack, teleconferences, one-on-one phone calls, etc.
- Foster a healthy and welcoming group dynamic

Invite other teens to join AYEА

- You and your peers are encouraged to join in Statewide campaign efforts and lend your decision making power in monthly calls
- You are encouraged to apply for and nominate another teen to attend AYEА's Youth Organizer Summit in September
- You are welcome to participate in summer activities like our summer camping trip and fundraiser
- You can attend local chapter meetings or start your own chapter!

Keep AYEА staff and other members updated

- Ask for help freely! Text, call, email, etc. staff, adult volunteers, and peers when challenges arise!
