

Expected Behaviors

We hope that you will enjoy your involvement in the AYEA Civics & Conservation Summit and that it further develops your knowledge and skills. The following guidelines have been designed to give you a clear understanding of our expectations for your involvement in this event.

Please read and sign at the bottom if you can commit to the following

I will respect the viewpoints of my peers and leaders, and promote understanding and teamwork throughout the event.

I will be open to new ideas, cultures, and the different personalities of all present. I will honor my own values and contribute my ideas, talents, and interests to discussion topics, field trips, and activities.

I will be on time and present for all activities and will not leave the premises without permission or without being accompanied by Staff or Volunteers.

I will respect the privacy and needs of others.

I will not use tobacco products, alcohol, or illegal drugs during this event.

I understand that personal devices are welcome during group 'downtime' and travel, but will not play these during the training sessions.

I have read, understood and agreed to this Participant Commitment. I understand that any violation of this commitment may warrant my immediate discharge from the event.